Lot #206: (VALLEY FORGE)
REVOLUTIONARY WAR MANUSCRIPT
DOCUMENT - HEADQUARTERS -
VALLEY FORGE - JANUARY 7, 1778.
FOUR PAGES.

Manuscript outlines the procedure for inspection of military hospitals at Valley Forge and vicinity. Washington was aware of poor treatment and disorder at the hospitals and ordered daily inspections to include inventory of patients, their clothing and military equipment. The inspector was also to return soldiers to duty as soon as possible and prevent desertions. The manuscript outlines 10 specific duties for the inspector. The document gives the flavor of the hardship facing the Revolutionary Army during the Valley Forge winter and Washington's attempt at holding his forces together. Some separation at the folds. Browning but all very readable.
